Introduction

Planned, professional supervision and case discussion is at the heart of safe and effective decision making in safeguarding and child protection practice.

CES can provide pastoral staff / Family Support and Attendance staff with specialist supervision as part of our offer to schools and academies.

Sessions last for one hour and can be delivered termly or half termly depending upon school / staff needs.

The session is facilitated by a skilled and experienced consultant, and considers issues including

- Individual case discussion
- Identifying challenges and barriers and finding solutions
- Identifying good practice
- Exploring safe decision making
- Reflective practice and discussion
- Staff wellbeing and support

Sessions are discussion based, and can be delivered formally with an agenda and agreed action points for the participant.

Sessions are voluntary, confidential and are as far as possible flexible to the needs of the participant.

Length of session: 1-hour x 6 sessions (one per half term)
